

BIOGRAPHY OF
LARRY LOHMANN, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
THE AMERICAN LEGION
NATIONAL LEGISLATIVE DIVISION

Larry Lohmann is the Assistant Director of the National Legislative Division for The American Legion. Larry has been a member of The American Legion Post 85 in Arlington, VA since moving to the area in 2014. He is a U.S. Navy veteran who deployed with the USS Cleveland in 2007 in support of the Global War on Terror for which he received the Navy Achievement Medal and qualified as an Enlisted Surface Warfare Specialist. While on active duty he completed an Associate of Arts degree from Central Texas College through the Navy College Program with Tuition Assistance.

After leaving the Navy, Larry used the Post 9/11 GI Bill in pursuit of a bachelor's degrees in political science and history from The University of Minnesota. After undergrad, Larry continued his education graduating from the Antonin Scalia Law School – George Mason University earning his Juris Doctorate and completing the National Security and Policy Concentration. At Scalia Law, he participated in Mason Veterans and Servicemembers Legal Clinic (M-VETS), assisting servicemembers, veterans and dependent family members in a wide variety of litigation and non-litigation matters. While in law school, Larry also had the honor of clerking for the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corp, the American Center for Law and Justice, United States Senate Committee on the Judiciary Anti-trust subcommittee, and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) in the pathways program.

Since joining The American Legion National Headquarters in Washington, D.C., after graduation in May of 2017, he works daily advocating for active duty servicemembers, and veterans across a large range of issues, primarily focused on National Security.
